Hi, I’m Eren.

Not a graphic designer, but definitely someone who loves to get creative.

This humble portfolio is where I let my creative side do the talking.
Simple, visual, and made with care. :)

Complete-rebranding proposal for social networking app

In a strategic brand management school project,
I led the visual rebrand of a social media app—logo, colors, social templates, website, and app UI. Combined design with brand strategy and feature development.
